

SECOND-YEAR TEACHER ACADEMY

June 5-7 Madison, SD
Dakota State University Campus

July 10-12 Spearfish, SD
Black Hills State University Campus

During The Governor's New Teacher Academy You Will:

- Celebrate the accomplishments of your initial years of teaching;
- Reflect on your progress as a teacher and the resulting influence on student achievement;
- Examine the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards Five Core Propositions to understand what accomplished teachers should know and be able to do;
- Develop professional relationships to achieve common educational goals; and
- Participate in activities that demonstrate your commitment to the teaching profession.

National Board For Professional Teaching Standards Five Core Propositions

<http://www.nbpts.org/about/coreprops.cfm#policy>

Core Proposition #1: Teachers are committed to students and their learning.

Core Proposition #2: Teachers know the subjects they teach and how to teach those subjects to students.

Core Proposition #3: Teachers are responsible for managing and monitoring student learning.

Core Proposition #4: Teachers think systematically about their practice and learn from experience.

Core Proposition #5: Teachers are members of learning communities.
